

Co-Parenting Consent for Services

Court Involvement:

Because you are seeking services in a situation where the Court may be involved, please be aware that these records may be court ordered by the Court or by one of the attorneys involved in the case. Please address any concerns you may have about these issues at any point during your work with me.

Confidentiality:

Because of the nature of this work, there is a possibility that I may be ordered to appear in court. As a result, confidentiality is limited to the degree that this may occur, especially as it pertains to your child(ren) and/or your cooperation in the co-parenting process. By signing this release, you are NOT waiving your rights to confidentiality. This is simply a notification that our discussions and my professional opinion may be ordered by the court (either via report or in person). Please note that records for co-parenting are maintained as one chart and will require each participant's consent before they are released (included in this packet). Also, by signing this you are agreeing to consent to communication between myself and your attorney, as this is often needed during the course of co-parenting for updates, scheduling, etc.

Court Hearings:

I understand that should I or my attorney require Marcie Gribbin, LPC to appear in court, a court order is required, not just a subpoena. I understand this is to protect my records and confidentiality in accordance with the PA Code of Ethics 49.72 and the National Association of Social Workers.

Case Consultation:

Due to the difficult nature of co-parenting, I may seek consultation with my peers if applicable. Any identifying information will be removed from the case material. If you have any questions about this consultation, please do not hesitate to ask.

The following outlines my fees:

Please be advised that by signing this document you are agreeing to pay for these services in full at the time of the session or prior to services rendered (for court reports/appearances), etc.

- Co-parenting sessions are 60 minutes in length and are billed at a rate of $200.00 per session.
- E-mail correspondence and phone calls on topics other than arranging appointments are billed at the rate of $50.00 per 15 minute increments.
- Conversations with the children’s therapist and/or the Guardian ad Litem are not charged. However, any conversations with attorneys are billed at the rate of $50.00 per 15 minute increments. If the attorney has asked for a block of time for this discussion, you will be billed for that entire time regardless of how long the phone call occurs because I have had to block off this time for the phone contact.
- Preparation for Court, reports and/or letters, attendance at pretrial conferences or dispositions, telephone conferences are all billed at the rate of $200.00 per hour in 15 minute increments. Any travel time is billed at the same hourly rate.
- Court is charged at a rate of $200.00 per hour. This fee will also include travel to and from Court, time waiting as well as time in the actual courtroom. A deposit of $100.00 is required for attendance at court.
- For settlements or continuations in which I have not been given 48 hours notice, I will bill for the time blocked off for Court at the rate of $200.00 per hour.
- If there is an agreement which designates the percentage split of costs associated with co-parenting sessions, we will follow that agreement. Otherwise, costs will be split 50/50 per party. Any other expenses will be paid by the party initiating the request and/or court order.
- Missed appointments shall be paid for by the party who has not given 24 hour notice. The charge for missing co-parenting sessions is the same as the cost of a full session.

Recording of sessions is forbidden.

At some point you may feel that the recommendations are unfair. You are welcome to discuss these feelings with me. However, it’s important to remember that the focus of these recommendations is based upon what is in the best interest of your child(ren). As a result, this focus may not be in line with what you want or feel is important at times.
